Herb Lester, Paul Gorman : Punk London before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Punk London:

Punk had London roots. This 20-page booklet, featuring rare archive photos, and fold-out map charts the squats, clubs, shops and rehearsal spaces from which the movement emerged. It takes in Malcolm McLaren and Vivienne Westwood's King's Road shop, The Clash's Chalk Farm rehearsal space, and more besides.

About the Author Paul Gorman, author of The Look: Adventures In Pop Rock Fashion, as well as books on designer Barney Bubbles and retail pioneer Tommy Roberts.
