before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Rhodopes West (Bulgaria) 1:100,000 Hiking Map, GPS-compatible DOMINO, 2011 edition:

Rhodopes West (Bulgaria) 1:100,000 Hiking Map, GPS-compatible DOMINO, 2011 edition This is a double-sided, detailed hiking map of the western part of the Rhodope Mountains along the Greek border, at scale 1:100,000. The map is also suitable for cycling. The Rhodopes massif is split east / west with a generous overlap between the two sides. Coverage extends from Belitsa - Gotse Delchev in the west to Asenovgrad - Madan in the east. Topography is shown by contours at 50m intervals with faint relief shading and spot heights, plus colouring for forested areas. Boundaries of protected areas are indicated. All place names apart from selected major towns and locations are given in Cyrillic alphabet. Road network includes dirt roads or tracks and hiking trails, both marked and unmarked. Railway lines are shown with stations and stops. Various places of interest are highlighted. Geographical coordinates are shown at 10' interval. Map legend includes English. Also provided is a brief description of the Rhodopes in Bulgarian and English and a list of selected chalets with phone numbers.
