Alta Macadam : Rome (Blue Guides) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Rome (Blue Guides):

More than 30 walks to every corner of the celebrated city of Rome are presented in this tourist's guide, accompanied by a 16-page colour street map and numerous plans of sites, churches and museums. The handbook also covers day trips out of Rome, offering descriptions of Ostia Antica, Tivoli and Hadrian's Villa. The practical information section addresses the essentials such as where to eat and stay, advice on public transport, annual events, and the best times for visiting churches and museums.

'This is quite simply the most informative, most in-depth guide book currently available on Rome....it gives the reader a well-written synopsis of every important monument in a city so rich in myth and history. For the traveller interested in going beyond colour photos of the Pantheon, this book is indispensable.' An .com reader review. About the Author Alta Macadam has lived and worked in Italy for thirty years. She is also the author of bestselling Blue Guides to Tuscany, Umbria, Florence, and Venice.
