Dana Facaros, Michael Pauls : Rome Central Italy, 2nd (Cadogan Guides) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Rome Central Italy, 2nd (Cadogan Guides):

Immerses itself in the rich treasures of Rome • takes in the regions of Lazio, Abruzzo and Molise, exploring a chain of beautiful volcanic lakes, beaches, islands and refined hill towns • discovers ancient gardens and scales the high peaks of the Apennines • uncovers some spectacular artistic surprises, from a medieval encyclopaedia in gold mosaic to stone Renaissance monsters • samples pasta with boar sauce and sups on local wine

"'Addictive reading on the cafe terrace' - Daily Telegraph" About the Author Dana Facaros and Michael Pauls are passionate about Europe and have written over 40 books for Cadogan, including many in the flagship Italy series. They have lived all over Europe, but are currently settled in an idyllic farmhouse surrounded by vineyards in the Lot Valley, France.
