Rome in your jacket pocketBy Carl StewartWith so many thousands and thousands of pages written for the visitor to Rome, what a pleasure to find a tiny paperback book, small enough to slip into a suit jacket pocket, with almost everything you need to know about Rome in about 125 pages. Yes, some of the information is out-of-date, e.g., use of lire rather than euros, completely inaccurate prices on both restaurants and hotels, but the bulk of the information is as valuable today as it was when this little gem was published.
