Rebecca Ford : Rome: Full color regional travel guide to Rome (Footprint Destination Guides) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Rome: Full color regional travel guide to Rome (Footprint Destination Guides):

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Very useful guide book By ArlingtonWahoo This book was extremely useful during my wife and I's 3 days in Rome over the summer. While the city gives out great city maps, there are zero info booklets for most of the sites (Colosseum, The Forum, etc) so this book was invaluable. For all of the main sites there are detailed maps and descriptions that allowed us to take self-guided tours without paying the inflated price for the audio tours. I would definitely recommend.

Detailed coverage of all the main sites, including Vatican City and Prati, Trastevere, Villa Borghese, the Quirinale and Esquiline, plus information on day trips from Rome.

About the Author Rebecca Ford is travel writer and photographer who specializes in writing about the British Isles Italy. As well as writing guidebooks Rebecca also contributes to newspapers, websites and audio tours for museums and gardens.
