Herb Lester : Rome: Moods and Places: A Guide to the Usual Unusual before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Rome: Moods and Places: A Guide to the Usual Unusual:

Informed by on-the-ground research, Herb Lester's handy, folded guides uncover what makes a city special - its most distinctive shops, restaurants, cafés, bars, museums and galleries, whether unmissable old favourites, exciting new arrivals or overlooked treasures. Each entry comes with its own brief description, and a basic map helps the reader get their bearings and make plans. Here is the essential companion for those in search of la dolce vita. The itinerary of 41 entries includes good food, strong coffee, interesting shops and plenty of strolling the city's beautiful streets. There are clothes shops, restaurants, a cemetery and galleries and special sections on ice cream and fountains. Printed on a single sheet of 100% recycled paper, these light, portable guides are an ideal travelling companion.

About the Author Herb Lester Associates publish guides for tourists and locals: witty, pretty, curious and opinionated. We research, write, print and distribute maps and guides to the world's great cities. We seek out the well-used and much-loved, and enjoy the extraordinary as well as the everyday. Old bookshops and new coffee shops, park benches and dive bars, hat shops and haberdashers: this is the world according to Herb Lester.
