MonteiroIt's old - in 7 seven years a lot can changeBut it's, for sure, so good - all of the Routard Guides are excellent - that even being old it has lots of basic info that will not age in 7 years.I didn't read it and as there are only a few left I hope to be able to get one before readers seduced by my enticing review might buy the few ones left.

This guidebook covers many popular tourist destinations, inland and coastal, including Naples, Capri, Pompeii and the Amalfi coast - not forgetting the less well-known treasures of the Campagna, Puglia and Calabria. It is packed with essential information on history, cultural heritage, places to visit and all the practicalities, and recommends all the best places to stay and eat, from camp sites to hotels and from beach bars to restaurants, highlighting the best value for money across different price ranges.
