Christopher Tabraham : Scotland from Above before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Scotland from Above:

Referred to as a creative tour de force, the latest book from photographer Colin Baxter is truly a must-see. With more than 200 high-quality images helping to create a new perspective and a unique vision of Scotland from above?from 100 feet to over 12,000 feet above. This comprehensive overview of Scotland's geography is broken into seven chapters with a general introduction and a satellite view of Scotland using M-Sat true color imaging.

About the Author Baxter renowned for his sensitive images of the Scottish landscape, is one of Scotland's most celebrated photographers.
