Michael Leitch : Slow Walks in London: A Visitor's Companion before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Slow Walks in London: A Visitor's Companion:

This guide offers a selection of planned walks through the best-and least-known areas of London. Out-of-town walks will take the reader at the most one-and-a-half hour from London to the historic cities of Oxford, Cambridge, Brighton, Canterbury, Stratford-upon-Avon and nearer by to Windsor and Hampton Court. Every walk is accompanied by a specially drawn map and route guide and features markets, pubs, museums and historic houses.
