Not a great programBy atlady81I have been researching the web for months trying to find a great program to assist me with teaching my children Spanish. We recently purchased this program and I must say that it leaves more to be desired. The audio quality isn't good and doing a program like this with just audio and no visual component is unrealistic for children. We are keeping the program and it will be used along with other tools but alone, it falls flat. My 2 year old daughter did listen to the program for a few minutes but again without the visual piece it will be a struggle.
